

Topic Fact Sheet – Block 3 (Drawing, Collage and Printing)

Key Terms:

Texture	The feeling, appearance or consistency of an object or material.
Positive space	the area or part of an artwork's composition that the subject occupies. For instance, the positive space could be a vase of flowers, or a person's face.
Negative space	The space around and between the subject
Composition	The arrangement of different elements within an artwork or design.
Engraving	Carving out textures, patterns and designs into surfaces
Relief Print	The lines or shapes you carve into the printing block will not have ink on them, so will not show up on your paper.

Printing

There are 3 different types of printing that year 6 complete; Mono printing, Lino printing and screen printing.

Children can also think about reversing positive and negative space in the composition using relief prints.

Andy Warhol (1928-1987)

Andy Warhol was a successful magazine and ad illustrator who became a leading artist of the 1960s Pop art movements.

Collage:

Collage is a technique of art by which art results from assembling different forms, creating a new whole. Different materials can create different overlaying effects. These different materials can include fabrics which have been dyed in natural ways. This can also include digital media collages; collections of photos to make a different image.

David Hockney (1937 - present)

David Hockney became famous for his bright landscape pictures however over lockdown experimented with digital media.

Some careers which use printing and collage: illustrator, architect, interior design, video game designer, graphic designer, fashion designer, landscape designer, photographer, director and curator.